

FOR THE FUN PARENTS

WE KNOW THAT PLAYING AND LEARNING DOESN'T STOP WHEN PRE-SCHOOL IS OUT. HERE'S WHAT TO DO THIS YEAR-END SO YOUR CHILDREN ARE HAPPY AND LEARNING

1 Go On A Romp

📍 Sungei Buloh Wetland Reserve

The new extension that opened in 2014 houses a visitor centre that features a multimedia gallery and games for children to enjoy. Trek through the adventure trails with your child and get up close to the wildlife such as mudskippers, crabs, water snakes, birds, spiders, monitor lizards and otters. September to March is migratory season, so look out for the diverse flocks of shorebirds or waders including plovers and sandpipers.

2 Take A Guided Learning Tour

📍 Singapore's maritime landmarks
The Singapore Maritime Trails are organised by the Maritime and Port Authority of Singapore. The free tours run every first Saturday of the month, and take about 2.5 hours to complete. It's a great way for children to learn about our history as a trading port, as they visit old and new maritime landmarks including Fort Canning, the Singapore River and The Fullerton Hotel.

If you would like to participate, email mpasmt@gmail.com or call 6836 6466.

4 Run Wild

📍 Marine Cove's outdoor playground
Take your child on a great physical workout to this new megaplayground. Play elements include a 8m-tall tower, three slides, a rope bridge and climbing net courses. There are many other play equipment catering to children of all ages and abilities, including those with special needs. Sensory play panels, for example, help to hone motor skills and hand-eye coordination. If you intend to spend an entire day here, there are shower facilities for the children and a good variety of eateries.

3 Spend Quality Time With Loved Ones

📍 Families for Life picnics
These free picnics are organised year-round at various parts of Singapore. Outdoor movie screenings, bouncy castles and family challenges will be a treat for the little ones. The next one on 26 November coincides with Grandparents' Day. If you would like to join the picnic at Bishan-Ang Mo Kio Park, email picnics@familiesforlife.sg.

5 See How Our Country Has Changed

📍 Singapore City Gallery @ URA
The Singapore City Gallery tells the story of our island's physical transformation over the past 50 years. Children can immerse in beautiful scenes of Singapore through a panoramic sight-and-sound show, and wander around the gallery to tinker with interactive and experiential exhibits. ❤️
