

FRIENDSHIP PUZZLE

What do you look for in a friend? What does it mean to be a good friend? Draw or write down what friendship means to you in each of the puzzle pieces. Then cut out the pieces and fit them back together.

 Hey Parents!

Use this activity to spark a conversation about friendships. Ask your child to name the qualities of a good friend, or describe what friends can do for each other during play or in preschool.

